

Shared Use Agreement – Just So We're on the Same Page

Thanks for trusting me with your time and travel plans. I'm happy to share the van—this quick agreement helps make sure we're both covered and clear on expectations.

This document acknowledges the informal, temporary use of Steven Miller's personal vehicle (2024 Ford Transit T-350 Wagon, VIN: 1FBAX2Y88RKA00825) by the undersigned friend or family member.

Driver Acknowledgements:

- I am borrowing this vehicle with permission and understand that this is not a commercial rental.
- I agree to operate the vehicle safely, lawfully, and responsibly.
- I confirm that I possess a valid driver's license and active personal auto insurance.
- I understand that American Family Insurance excludes coverage when the vehicle is rented or shared. I agree to be personally responsible for any damages, towing, tickets, or accidents during my use of the vehicle.
- I will return the vehicle in the same condition, with a full tank of gas (unless otherwise agreed).
- I agree to notify Steven Miller immediately in the event of an incident and provide full cooperation with any insurance, repair, or legal process.

Insurance Tips for Borrower:

Before using the vehicle, you are encouraged to check with your insurance provider and ask:

- Does my policy cover me while driving a non-owned vehicle?
- Does it include liability, medical, and collision coverage in this situation?
- Is roadside assistance included for non-owned vehicles?
- Are there any exclusions for borrowed or informally rented vehicles?
